Sturdy Act ASTM – F2057-23 Goes in Effect on September 1st, 2023

Standard Safety Specification for Clothing Storage Units

All orders received for clothing storage units after August 1st 2023 will be made according to our specifications to become compliant.

This is what we need to do to become compliant at Nisley Cabinet:

- We will be using ¾” Extension Slides on Dressers and Chests to become compliant. Our Night Stands are compliant without making any changes.
- We will continue to use Full Extension Slides on Night Stands and Under Bed Storage Drawers.
- Weight will be added to the units that need it.
- Our overall unit sizes and drawer box sizes will not change.
- Warning labels will be applied as needed.
- There will be no added cost.

Feel free to call us with your thoughts and ideas! 330-674-5275

Thank you! for your business and we look forward to continue serving you!
